

MORGAN HIRE CAR ROUTE STRATFORD-UPON-AVON

Stratford-upon-Avon, a medieval market town in England's West Midlands, is the 16th-century birthplace of William Shakespeare. Stratford is a stunning destination to visit for a quick coffee stop or a long lunch, and is conveniently situated one hour from the Morgan factory along some fantastic driving roads.

This route is perfect for a half-day or full day hire, and can be extended to take in other areas of the Cotswolds should you wish. No visit to Stratford-upon-Avon is complete without a stop at Caffeine & Machine in Ettington just outside the town. Head on the A422 towards Banbury and you'll find Caffeine & Machine on your right hand side. With great coffee and a good breakfast and lunch menu, the venue is a perfect stop when travelling in a Morgan. It's always full of fellow petrol heads and you're likely to see some interesting cars in the car park during your visit.

POINTS OF INTEREST:

- Caffeine & Machine – perfect for a mug of proper coffee or a quick bite to eat
- Stratford-upon-Avon town centre – wide selection of riverside pubs and restaurants
